ON THE GO WITH AMANDA...

With so many new travelers joining our program, it might be helpful to answer some commonly asked questions, while also providing a refresher for our well-traveled friends.

1. I signed up for a tour. What happens next?

A. Once you have submitted your registration form and deposit, you are officially signed up. We'll send out a payment due notice two weeks prior to the final payment date, which can be found on the trip brochure. We also will invite you to attend a pre-departure meeting two weeks prior to the actual trip date. This is when you receive the final itinerary, departure details, and other pertinent trip info.

2. How do I know who the group leader is on my tour?

A. Kelli Toomsen and I are the group leaders and typically we are both scheduled on the tour. This is to help provide the best service possible while also planning for the unexpected.

3. How long have you been doing this?

A. Kelli has been traveling with the bank for more than 24 years. I've been in this role for over 19 years. We often say we have seen and experienced nearly every possible situation - and then someone throws us a curve ball and we add to our book of experiences!
